Last 30 Days of Season 29

Announcements Miss Buffalo Mar 3, 2023

The season of the Timekeeper is reaching an end but, like time, we'll never stop…making gaming fun for everyone, that is! From the Accessibility Explorer Path to Community Playdates, Season 29 is on track to transcend the boundaries of time.

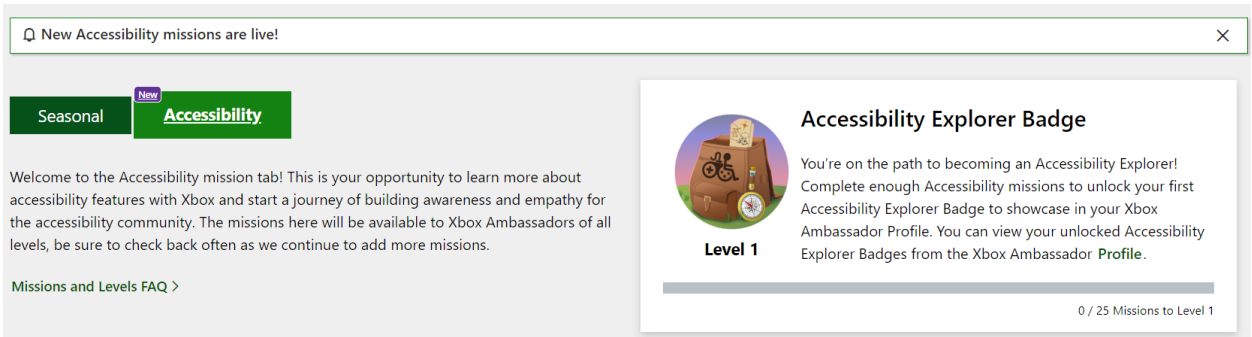
New Accessibility Missions and Badge

We've set a goal to have 1-million Accessibility Missions completed by Global Accessibility Awareness Day in May, and we can't reach that goal without our community of Xbox Ambassadors. To keep things fresh and interesting, we're adding more new Missions this month.

Here's a sneak peak:

- Read about Developmental Disabilities Awareness Month
- Try Notifications settings on Xbox console
- Read Why don't we talk more about cognitive accessibility?
- And many more!

If you haven't gotten started yet, head over to the Missions page and click the Accessibility tab to access the Explorer Path.



Did you know? The Xbox Ambassadors Accessibility Explorer Path badge is officially live! As you complete Missions along the path, you'll see your badge evolve on your Xbox Ambassadors profile.

Celebrating Women's History Month

The Xbox Ambassadors community is made up of diverse gamers from around the world and we love to amplify and highlight the voices of these players. In celebration of Women's History Month, we asked select Xbox Ambassador Community Champions what it means to them to be a woman in gaming. We're thrilled to share our Q&A with Xbox Ambassadors BlondiebutGeeky and oOGingerAleOo on International Women's Day.

We're also observing Women's History Month with a series of XA Missions that feature games with powerful women. Play, share, and discuss your favorite games by heading to the Missions page!
